CRIMES

Ch. 37

§ 797. Publication and sale of photographs of defense installations

On and after thirty days from the date upon which the President defines any vital military or naval installation or equipment as being within the category contemplated under section 795 of this title, whoever reproduces, publishes, sells, or gives away any photograph, sketch, picture, drawing, map, or graphical representation of the vital military or naval installations or equipment so defined, without first obtaining permission of the commanding officer of the military or naval post, camp, or station concerned, or higher authority, unless such photograph, sketch, picture, drawing, map, or graphical representation has clearly indicated thereon that it has been censored by the proper military or naval authority, shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both. June 25, 1948, c. 645, 62 Stat. 738.

Historical and Revision Notes

Reviser's Note. Based on sections 45 and 45b, of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense (Jan. 12, 1938, c. 2, §§ 1, 3, 52 Stat. 3).

Punishment provision of section 45 of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense, is repeated. Words "upon conviction" were deleted as surplus-age since punishment cannot be imposed until a conviction is secured.

Minor changes were made in phraseology. 80th Congress House Report No. 304.

Canal Zone. Applicability of section to Canal Zone, see section 14 of this title.

(a) Whoever knowingly and willfully communicates, furnishes, transmits, or otherwise makes available to an unauthorized person, or publishes, or uses in any manner prejudicial to the safety or interest of the United States or for the benefit of any foreign government to the detriment of the United States any classified information—

(1) concerning the nature, preparation, or use of any code, cipher, or cryptographic system of the United States or any foreign government; or

(2) concerning the design, construction, use, maintenance, or repair of any device, apparatus, or appliance used or prepared or planned for use by the United States or any foreign government for cryptographic or communication intelligence purposes; or

(3) concerning the communication intelligence activities of the United States or any foreign government; or

Ch. 37                      ESPIONAGE AND CENSORSHIP                      18 § 798

(4) obtained by the processes of communication intelligence from the communications of any foreign government, knowing the same to have been obtained by such processes—

Shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

(b) As used in subsection (a) of this section—

The term "classified information" means information which, at the time of a violation of this section, is, for reasons of national security, specifically designated by a United States Government Agency for limited or restricted dissemination or distribution;

The terms "code," "cipher," and "cryptographic system" include in their meanings, in addition to their usual meanings, any method of secret writing and any mechanical or electrical device or method used for the purpose of disguising or concealing the contents, significance, or meanings of communications;

The term "foreign government" includes in its meaning any person or persons acting or purporting to act for or on behalf of any faction, party, department, agency, bureau, or military force of or within a foreign country, or for or on behalf of any government or any person or persons purporting to act as a government within a foreign country, whether or not such government is recognized by the United States;

The term "communication intelligence" means all procedures and methods used in the interception of communications and the obtaining of information from such communications by other than the intended recipients;

The term "unauthorized person" means any person who, or agency which, is not authorized to receive information of the categories set forth in subsection (a) of this section, by the President, or by the head of a department or agency of the United States Government which is expressly designated by the President to engage in communication intelligence activities for the United States.

(c) Nothing in this section shall prohibit the furnishing, upon lawful demand, of information to any regularly constituted committee of the Senate or House of Representatives of the United States of America, or joint committee thereof. Added Oct. 31, 1951, c. 655, § 24(a), 65 Stat. 719.

ment, writing, or note of anything connected with the national defense; or

(c) Whoever, for the purpose aforesaid, receives or obtains or agrees or attempts to receive or obtain from any person, or from any source whatever, any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, or note, of anything connected with the national defense, knowing or having reason to believe, at the time he receives or obtains, or agrees or attempts to receive or obtain it, that it has been or will be obtained, taken, made, or disposed of by any person contrary to the provisions of this chapter; or

(d) Whoever, lawfully having possession of, access to, control over, or being entrusted with any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, or note relating to the national defense, or information relating to the national defense which information the possessor has reason to believe could be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of any foreign nation, willfully communicates, delivers, transmits or causes to be communicated, delivered, or transmitted or attempts to communicate, deliver, transmit or cause to be communicated, delivered or transmitted the same to any person not entitled to receive it, or willfully retains the same and fails to deliver it on demand to the officer or employee of the United States entitled to receive it; or

(e) Whoever having unauthorized possession of, access to, or control over any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, or note relating to the national defense, or information relating to the national defense which information the possessor has reason to believe could be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of any foreign nation, willfully communicates, delivers, transmits or causes to be communicated, delivered, or transmitted, or attempts to communicate, deliver, transmit or cause to be communicated, delivered, or transmitted the same to any person not entitled to receive it, or willfully retains the same and fails to deliver it to the officer or employee of the United States entitled to receive it; or

(f) Whoever, being entrusted with or having lawful possession or control of any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, instrument, appliance, note, or information, relating to the national defense, (1) through gross negligence permits the same to be removed from its proper place of custody or delivered to anyone in violation of his trust, or to be lost, stolen, abstracted, or destroyed, or (2) having knowledge that the same has been illegally removed from its proper place of custody or delivered to anyone in violation of his trust, or lost, or stolen, abstracted, or destroyed, and fails to make prompt report of such loss, theft, abstraction, or destruction to his superior officer—

Shall be fined not more than $10,000 or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both.

(g) If two or more persons conspire to violate any of the foregoing provisions of this section, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each of the parties to such conspiracy shall be subject to the punishment provided for the offense which is the object of such conspiracy. June 25, 1948, c. 645, 62 Stat. 736; Sept. 23, 1950, c. 1024, Title I, § 18, 64 Stat. 1003.

Historical and Revision Notes

Reviser's Note. Based on sections 31 and 36 of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title I, §§ 1, 6, 40 Stat. 217, 219; Mar. 28, 1940, c. 72, § 1, 54 Stat. 79).

Section consolidated sections 31 and 36 of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense.

Words "departments or agencies" were inserted twice in conformity with definitive section 6 of this title to eliminate any possible ambiguity as to scope of section.

The words "or induces or aids another" were omitted wherever occurring as unnecessary in view of definition of "principal" in section 2 of this title.

Mandatory punishment provision was rephrased in the alternative.

Minor changes were made in phraseology. 80th Congress House Report No. 301.

1950 Amendment. Act Sept. 23, 1950, divided section into subdivisions, added laboratories and stations, and places where material or instruments for use in time of war are the subject of research or development to the list of facilities and places to which subsection (a) applies, made subsection (d) applicable only in cases in which possession, access, or control is lawful, added subsection (e) to take care of cases in which possession, access, or control is unlawful, made subsection (f) applicable to instruments and appliances, as well as to documents, records, etc., and provided by subsection (g) a separate penalty for conspiracy to violate any provisions of this section.

15. New trial

Defendant, convicted of conspiracy to obtain defense information, was not entitled to new trial for assertedly newly discovered evidence that one from whom alleged co-conspirator had testified she had obtained defense information which she had furnished to defendant had denied having seen her and, in interviews with Government representatives, and before grand jury insisted on his innocence where defense had declined to interview alleged co-conspirator-witness before trial, requisite information with respect thereto had timely been turned over to defense counsel and he had agreed to enter jurisdiction only if granted immunity from perjury prosecution. U. S. v. Soblen, D.C.N.Y. 1961, 203 F.Supp. 542, affirmed 301 F.2d 236, certiorari denied 82 S.Ct. 1585, 370 U.S. 944, 8 L.Ed. 2d 810.

Defendant, convicted of conspiracy to obtain defense information, was not entitled to new trial for assertedly newly discovered evidence that various former O.S.S. employees were prepared to testify that individual who allegedly supplied defense information had no access to secrets and that he adhered to anti-Communist political tenets where Government had timely produced F.B.I. reports of interviews with former O.S.S. personnel but there was no request for such reports and defense chose not to locate or call any witnesses who had been connected with O.S.S. Id.

Defendant, convicted of conspiracy to obtain defense information, was not entitled to new trial for assertedly newly discovered evidence that his brother who had testified against defendant had assertedly been incompetent as witness by reason of mental condition which Government allegedly failed to disclose, where defendant actually knew of brother's mental condition defendant was experienced psychiatrist and it was decided as matter of defense strategy not to subpoena or request production of medical reports or to put psychiatrist on stand. Id.

§ 794. Gathering or delivering defense information to aid foreign government

(a) Whoever, with intent or reason to believe that it is to be used to the injury of the United States or to the advantage of a foreign nation, communicates, delivers, or transmits, or attempts to communicate, deliver, or transmit, to any foreign government, or to any faction or party or military or naval force within a foreign country, whether recognized or unrecognized by the United States, or to any representative, officer, agent, employee, subject, or citizen thereof, either directly or indirectly, any document, writing, code book, signal book, sketch, photograph, photographic negative, blueprint, plan, map, model, note, instrument, appliance, or information relating to the national defense, shall be punished by death or by imprisonment for any term of years or for life.

(b) Whoever, in time of war, with intent that the same shall be communicated to the enemy, collects, records, publishes, or communicates, or attempts to elicit any information with respect to the movement, numbers, description, condition, or disposition of any of the Armed Forces, ships, aircraft, or war materials of the United States, or with respect to the plans or conduct, or supposed plans or conduct of any naval or military operations, or with respect to any works or measures undertaken for or connected with, or intended for the fortification or defense of any place, or any other information relating to the public defense, which might be useful to the enemy, shall be punished by death or by imprisonment for any term of years or for life.

(c) If two or more persons conspire to violate this section, and one or more of such persons do any act to effect the object of the conspiracy, each of the parties to such conspiracy shall be subject to the punishment provided for the offense which is the object of such conspiracy. June 25, 1948, c. 645, 62 Stat. 737; Sept. 3, 1954, c. 1261, Title II, § 201, 68 Stat. 1219.

Historical and Revision Notes

Reviser's Note. Based on sections 32 and 34 of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense (June 15, 1917, c. 30, Title I, §§ 2, 4, 40 Stat. 218, 219).

Section consolidates sections 32 and 34 of Title 50, U.S.C., 1940 ed., War and National Defense.

The words "or induces or aids another" were omitted as unnecessary in view of definition of "principal" in section 2 of this title.

The conspiracy provision of said section 34 was also incorporated in section 2388 of this title.

Minor changes were made in phraseology. 80th Congress House Report No. 304.

1954 Amendment. Act Sept. 3, 1954, increased the penalty for peacetime espionage and corrected a deficiency in the sentencing authority by increasing penalty to death or imprisonment for any term of years.

Temporary Extension of Section. Temporary extension of section, see section 798 of this title.

Section 7 of Act June 30, 1953, c. 175, 67 Stat. 133, repealed Joint Res. July 3, 1952, c. 570, § 1(a) (20), 66 Stat. 333; Joint Res. Mar. 31, 1953, c. 13, § 1, 67 Stat. 18, which had provided that this section should continue in force until six months after the termination of the national emergency proclaimed by 1950 Proc. No. 2014, which is set out as a note preceding section 1 of Appendix to Title 50, War and National Defense.

Section 6 of Joint Res. July 3, 1952, repealed Joint Res. Apr. 14, 1952, c. 204, 66 Stat. 54, as amended by Joint Res. May 28, 1952, c. 330, 66 Stat. 96. Intermediate extensions by Joint Res. June 14, 1952, c. 437, 66 Stat. 137, and Joint Res. June 30, 1952, c. 520, 66 Stat. 206, which continued provisions until July 3, 1952, expired by their own terms.
